

A Nonfinitely Based Finite Semiring

Igor Dolinka

University of Novi Sad

Serbia

We present a semiring formed by seven binary relations on a two-element set (or, equivalently, by seven Boolean 2×2 matrices) that does not have a finite basis for its identities. As far as we know, this is the first example of a finite semiring with such a property. Some related open problems are also discussed.