Dualizing clones as Lawvere theories

Dragan Mašulović
University of Novi Sad
Serbia

In this talk we treat clones as Lawvere theories and then dualize them as categories, rather than as single objects of a category of algebras. The approach applies only to some primitive-positive clones, but in return, a structure with somewhat surprising properties is obtained. To illustrate the method, we thoroughly investigate the lattice of clones of operations over a finite boolean algebra.